

Student Resources

Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services

Information and internet links that are intended to give students and their families' financial information and resources.

www.rehab.state.al.us/Home/default.aspx?url=~/Services/VRS/Information+for+College+Students/Main

Bookshare

Bookshare is an online library that makes print material available in downloadable digital text formats.

www.bookshare.org/

College Board

The College Board is committed to ensuring that students with disabilities receive appropriate accommodations on its tests.

www.collegeboard.com/ssd/student/

College Funding for Students with Disabilities

A brochure produced by the University of Washington that provides general information on federal and state aid, scholarships and awards.

<http://www.washington.edu/doit/Brochures/Academics/financial-aid.html>

DO-IT

Washington University-Disabilities, Opportunities, Internetworking and Technology

DO-IT center promotes the success of individuals with disabilities and the use of computer and networking technologies.

www.washington.edu/doit/

ETS

Educational Testing Services-Resources for test takers with disabilities and health related needs.

www.ets.org/disabilities

FinAid-The Smart Student Guide to Financial Aid

A free public service website that provides information about financial aid, scholarships and fellowships for students with disabilities.

www.finaid.org/otheraid/disabled.phtml

Project Gutenberg

Free e-books.

www.gutenberg.org

Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic

RFB&D provides access to the nation's largest audio-book library of textbooks and literature titles.

www.rfbd.org/